到達目標	カリキュラムマップ、到達目標科目対応表及び学修ロードマップを参照のこと。
授業の概要	The course will focus on the international regulation and comparative law analyses of the most significant topics of international maritime law. The lecture classes will include an initial “general part” for the benefit of those who lack prior background in international maritime law. The main idea of the course is to cover a wide range of subjects related to the international maritime law, trying to identify the main issues for each of them and how they are dealt with by the law and in the practice. The course provides a more in depth study with regard to the selected areas in law and practice, which are identified as being more essential and most widely adopted in maritime business. The course will start with issues related to the legal status and safety of the ship, ways of acquisition of the ship. The central part of the course will deal with carriage of goods by sea. The last part will deal with accidents at sea and tort liability.
授業計画	The course will follow this structure: 1. Introduction; 2. Definition and Nationality of ships; 3. Safety of navigation; 4. Classification of ships; 5. Port State Control (PSC); 6. Acquisition of ships (shipbuilding and sale of ships); 7. Ship Mortgages and Maritime Liens; 8. Arrest of ships; 9. Liability of carrier; 10. Transport documents; 11. Charter parties; 12. Collision of ships; 13. Salvage; 14. Marine pollution.
授業の進め方	The course will follow a lecture and discussion format. Students will receive reading materials in advance and they are expected to read the assigned readings and be prepared to discuss them in class. Participation in class discussion is required. In order to have a meaningful class discussion, and in order for students to learn as much as possible, all students should participate. Class time will be used for discussion of the subject covered by reading materials. Written questions for discussion may be handed out with the reading materials before the class, so that students have time to prepare their ideas before the class.
教科書及び参考図書等	Reading materials are provided prior to each class
試験・成績評価等	Assessment of students’ performance in the course will be based on class participation and the final exam. Class participation consists of two elements and will be assessed in the following way: attendance=10%, and participation in discussion=20% The final exam is in the form of the take home exam (24 hours) and consists of two parts: hypothetical case=40% and essay=30% The final exam combined brings 70%. The main criteria for making assessment of the students include efforts in preparing for the classes and participation in discussion during the class, the level of understanding of the main issues discussed during the course, the way of argumentation, and the capacity for resolving the problems.
