授業の目的	The overall goal of this course is to improve competency and confidence in using legal English in the context of an international business environment in which English is the common means of communication. This overarching objective will be achieved by focusing on: 1. Developing core business law related English language skills, namely (i) explaining business law related issues to non-lawyers, (ii) negotiating legal agreements and (iii) legal writing and drafting. In order to achieve these goals, this course will deal with a broad range of business law related English. 2. Developing legal knowledge by studying selected fundamental features of contemporary global business law in English.
履修条件	The outcomes of the course will be to provide the students with basic communication skills in business English, with a particular focus on contracts. Although there are no particular conditions set for those who will take the course, in order to ensure the outcomes, the students should show their strong concern and willingness in using English for their future career.
