

Ewa Komorek (LLB (University of Warsaw), LLM (EU Business Law) (Universiteit van Amsterdam), PhD (Trinity College Dublin)) lectures EU Aviation Law in Trinity College Dublin and Media Law in Griffith College Dublin. She formerly worked for the European Commission's DG Competition (Media Unit) and in the EU & Competition Departments of Linklaters and Hammonds law firms in Brussels. She also worked as a consultant in the EU & Competition team of A&L Goodbody Solicitors in Dublin, as well as the research assistant for the Sales Law Review Group in the Irish Department of Enterprise, Trade and Employment. She was the country correspondent for Ireland for the 2012 update of the 2004 EMR study for the European Parliament entitled "The information of the citizen in the EU: obligations for the media and the Institutions concerning the citizen's right to be fully and objectively informed". She is the author of the book Media Pluralism and European Law (Kluwer Law International, 2012).