

Mikael Rask Madsen is head of iCourts and a senior researcher in the Institutionalisation Group. Mikael's research is focused on globalisation and the role of legal professionals in these processes, not least the emergence and legitimisation of international courts and jurisprudence. Mikael is Professor of European integration at the Faculty of Law.