

LL.M. Program

Asian Development Bank-Japan Scholarship Program (ADB-JSP)

Application Guidelines

(October 2020 Admissions)

1. Introduction

Please read the following Application Guidelines before submitting an application.

The LL.M. (Master of Laws) is a one-year degree program taught entirely in English. In 1994, the Graduate School of Law at Kyushu University established Japan's first Master's level program taught entirely in English. Drawing upon faculty members with particular strengths in the fields of international economic and business law, the LL.M. program was designed to provide both Japanese and international students with the ability to confront the many challenges of law in a global society.

Since then the program has grown in scale and scope and a wide selection of courses are now offered across the major fields of law. The diversity of both the faculty and student body ensures a unique educational experience at one of Japan's oldest and most prestigious universities.

For the academic year 2020-21, Kyushu University will be able to offer one student enrolled on the LL.M. program a scholarship supported by the "Asian Development Bank - Japan Scholarship Program" (ADB-JSP).

Candidates wishing to be considered for this scholarship should clearly indicate in Section 6 of the LL.M. Application Form that they wish to be considered for the scholarship.

In addition to the LL.M. Application Form & supporting materials, those wishing to receive an ADB-JSP scholarship are required to submit additional materials.

Please read Section 5 carefully and submit the additional documents with your application for the LL.M. program.

Applicants may apply for both the ADB scholarship and other Japanese government scholarships.

For full details on the LL.M. program, see: <http://www.law.kyushu-u.ac.jp/programs/english/>

2. Conditions of Eligibility for ADB-JSP

Applicants must meet all of the following conditions in order to be eligible for this scholarship:

- (1) The applicant must be a national of an ADB borrowing member country (i.e., applicants from countries that are not currently borrowing from the ADB are not eligible for the ADB-JSP Scholarship). A full list of countries is contained in Annex I below. In addition, applicants must currently reside in their home country, i.e., applicants living or working in a country other than his/her home country are not eligible for this scholarship.
- (2) The applicant must have gained admission to an approved post-graduate course. Please note that this condition will be automatically met if you are chosen for the scholarship.
- (3) The applicant must have a Bachelor's degree or equivalent with a superior academic record. For applicants who have earned their Master's degree in their home country and have completed only 16 years of education, the Master's level education will be deemed equivalent to a Japanese Bachelor's degree.
- (4) The applicant must have at least 2 years of full-time professional working experience (acquired after graduation) at the time of the application.
- (5) The applicant must be proficient in English. Please note that admission to Kyushu University international programs in law requires a TOEFL score of 92+ (Internet-based) or equivalent.
- (6) The applicant must not be more than 35 years old at the time of the application.
- (7) The applicant must be in good physical and mental health.
- (8) The applicant must agree to return to his/her home country in order to contribute to its development after completion of studies at Kyushu University.
- (9) The applicant's family income should not exceed US$50,000 / per year and individual income should not exceed US$25,000 / year. Proving family income means that applicants will be required to submit salary reports from both parents even if the applicant and parents are living separately.
