

The 10th Annual Kyushu University Law Conference

12-13 February 2015 Fukuoka City Japan

Messages from the Antiquity.
How can Roman Law contribute to the Current Debates in Law?

SPEAKERS

Ulrike Babusiaux	University of Zurich
Kengo Itamochi	Tokyo University
Cornelius van der Merwe	University of Stellenbosch
Martin Schermaier	University of Bonn
Wataru Miyasaka	Tsukuba University
Pompeo Polito	University of Rome La Sapienza, / lawyer
Takeshi Sasaki	Kyoto University
Yasunori Kasai	Tokyo University
Tomnoyoshi Hayashi	Osaka University
Carlos Amunategui	Pontifical Catholic University of Chile
Maiko Miyasaka	Kyoto University *Grad student
Mariko Igimi	Kyushu University
Frits Bransma	University of Groningen
Johannes Platschek	University of Munich

Venue

Kyushu University Nishijin Plaza,
2-16 Nishijin, Sawaraku
814-0002 Fukuoka-shi

From any subway station in Fukuoka, you can take the subway to Nishijin. Get off at Nishijin Subway Station and exit the station through exit 7. Walk down to the Hii River and turn to the left at a restaurant called "GUSTO". Nishijin Plaza is about 5 minute walk down the road.

The subway schedule can be found at the following link:

<http://www.fuk-ab.co.jp/english/access/subway.html>

Annual Kyushu University Law Conference 2016, Fukuoka, Japan			Messages from the Antiquity. How can Roman Law contribute to the Current Debates in Law?
		Chair / MC			Q&A session with students
Feb. 12 (Fri.)	10:00-11:00	Mariko Igimi	opening session	Welcome by Dean Norio Tanaka (Kyushu-University, Faculty of Law) Message from Prof. Dr. Reinhard Zimmermann (Director, Max Planck Institut, Hamburg) Concept of the Conference, 2016 (Mariko Igimi, Kyushu-University)
	11:00-12:00		Ulrike Babusiaux	Coordination of different layers of law in the Roman Empire and in the European Union	○
	12:00-13:30	lunch break
	13:30-14:00	Stefan Wrba	Kengo Itamochi	Roman Law in American Law: Roman Influence on Joseph Story's theory of Bailment
	14:00-15:00		Cornelius van der Merwe	The practical application of the modes of acquisition of property by accession of movables and specification in the modern law of South Africa and Scotland.	○
	15:00-15:30	coffee break
	15:30-16:30	Ryu Kojima	Martin Schermaier	Roman Property and the Modern Concept of „Ownership“	○
	16:30-17:00		Wataru Miyasaka	corpus ex distantibus in Roman law. A basis for floating lien in Japanese law.
	17:00-17:30		Pompeo Polito	From res incorporales to Immaterialgüterrechte, the story of intellectual property.
	17:30-18:00		discussion
	18:00-19:30	Mark Fenwick	Reception offered by Kyushu-University Welcome speech by Prof. Dr. Shigeo Nishimura (Prof. emeritus, Kyushu-University)
Feb. 13 (Sat.)	9:00-9:30	Steven van Uytsel	Takeshi Sasaki	Roman-Japanese legacy with the appointment of second degree successor.
	9:30-10:00		Yasunori Kasai	Hybris and Defamation in Greek and Roman Law
	10:00-10:15		Tomoyoshi Hayashi	Democracy in Japan
	10:15-11:15		Carlos Amunategui	Middle Class and Democracy	○
	11:15-11:45		discussion
	11:45-13:00	lunch break
	13:00-13:30	Yasunori Kasai	Maiko Miyasaka	bona fides in Plautus
	13:30-14:30		Mariko Igimi	Marking a point of no return. E commerce and stipuatio	○
	14:30-15:00	coffee break
	15:00-15:30	Mark Fenwick	Johannes Platschek	Non-fault Liability for Defects of the Sold Item: Application and Exclusion in Roman and Contemporary German Law	○
	15:30-16:30		Frits Bransma	Law in daily life. Parking fines and Roman law.
	16:30-17:00		discussion
	17:00-17:15	closing remarks by Prof. Toshiyuki Kono, Director of International Programs in Law, Kyushu-University			