

LL.M. Program

Japanese Government Scholarship & Self-Financing Students

Application Guidelines (October 2023 Admissions)

1. Introduction

Please read the following Application Guidelines carefully before submitting an application.

The LL.M. (Master of Laws) is a one-year degree program taught entirely in English. In 1994, the Graduate School of Law at Kyushu University established Japan's first Master's level program taught in English. Drawing upon faculty members with particular strengths in the fields of international economic and business law, the LL.M. program was designed to provide both Japanese and international students with the ability to confront the many challenges of law in a global society.

Since then, the program has grown in scale and scope and a wide selection of courses are now offered across the major fields of law. The diversity of both the faculty and student body ensures a unique educational experience at one of Japan's most prestigious public universities.

For further details on the LL.M. program, see the attached Appendix and the program website: <http://www.law.kyushu-u.ac.jp/programsinenglish/>

If you are applying for a Japanese government scholarship, please read Sections 5 & 6 very carefully.

2. Program Duration

The LL.M. is taught on a full-time basis and takes 12 months for completion, beginning in October every year and ending in early September of the following year.

3. Admission Requirements

For admission to the LL.M., applicants must meet the following requirements:

1. A degree in Law from an accredited university.
2. A good command of English. A TOEFL score of 92+ (Internet-based), an IELTS score of over 7.0 or equivalent is required for non-native English speakers.
3. Sufficient financial support for the duration of the program. Further details on the costs of studying for the LL.M., including tuition and other fees, are available at the program web site.

4. Application Materials

Applicants are requested to submit by registered airmail or equivalent (i.e., Federal Express, DHL etc.), an original and one copy of the following documents to the Faculty of Law, Kyushu University before December 23, 2022 (applications arriving after that date cannot be accepted): → extended to February 13, 2023

1. Completed LL.M. Application Form. Please note: (1) It is very important that the name that you include in Section 1 of the Application Form is the same as the name in your passport. The Student Visa of successful applicants will be issued with the name provided in Section 1, and it can cause problems at immigration when entering Japan if the names are different. (2) Nationality. You must indicate on the Application Form if you have dual nationality or Japanese nationality.
2. A photocopy of the Graduation Certificate of the last university and graduate school attended, OR a Certified Letter from the university at which the applicant is currently attending, stating the expected graduation date.
3. An Official School Transcript of the last school from which the applicant graduated and that which the applicant is currently attending. Please note that good grades on the school transcript are required (ideally in the top 25% of the class) if you want a Japanese Government Scholarship.
4. Two Letters of Recommendation from the Dean, the applicant's supervising professor or other teaching staff who have had direct contact with the applicant; or from a supervisor in the employing body with personal knowledge of the applicant (forms attached below). If you want a Japanese Government Scholarship, one Letter of Recommendation must be from the Dean addressed to the President of Kyushu University. (*Use the prescribed form.)

*A reference letter in Japanese or English is acceptable.

5. For non-native speakers, proof of English proficiency must be provided. A TOEFL score of 92+ (Internet-based), an IELTS score of over 7.0, or equivalent is required for non-native English speakers.

Please note that for MEXT scholarship candidates, proof of English proficiency is compulsory and there is no waiver.

All application materials should be typed in English on the attached forms or additional sheets of A4 paper. In the event materials required above are in a language other than English or Japanese, a translation into one of these languages must be attached.

Application materials will not be returned to applicants.

5. Application Procedure & Notification of Result

Question 6 of the LL.M. Application Form asks whether an applicant wishes to receive a Japanese government scholarship.

Section 6 below describes the conditions of eligibility for the scholarship.

The application procedure is different depending on whether you are applying for a Japanese government scholarship or not:

i. Applicants NOT wishing to receive a Japanese Government Scholarship

After receiving the application Kyushu University MAY decide to hold an interview.

Interviews will be held either by ZOOM, phone or (if the candidate lives in Fukuoka) in person in mid-January 2023.

Applicants will be informed of the result of their application to the LL.M., by end-March 2023.

ii. Applicants wishing to receive a Japanese Government Scholarship

If the LL.M. Admissions Committee decides to award a scholarship, then the applicant will be informed by mid-January 2023.

A student who has been awarded a scholarship will then be required to submit the additional Japanese Government Scholarship Application Form and supporting materials. This form will be provided to all successful candidates by e-mail when they are informed their application for a scholarship has been successful.

The completed Scholarship Application Form and all supporting documents must be submitted before February 10, 2023.

Successful candidates must also complete a brief “e-mail interview” in mid-January, 2023.

Formal confirmation of the award of the scholarship will be informed to the candidate by end-March 2023.

6. Conditions of Eligibility for the Japanese Government Scholarship

To be eligible for a Japanese Government Scholarship, a candidate must meet all of the following conditions:

- (1) Nationality: Applicants must be citizens of a nation recognized under the foreign scholarship program of the Japanese Ministry of Education and be resident in that nation until they come to Japan after they are awarded the scholarship. Anyone holding Japanese nationality is not eligible to receive a scholarship.
- (2) Education: Applicants must hold a Bachelor’s degree in Law from an accredited University. In the event they are currently studying law at a university, graduation should take place before October 1, 2023 in order to be eligible.
- (3) Age: All applicants must be under 35 years of old as of April 2, 2023. i.e., Any candidate born before April 1, 1988, is not eligible for a Japanese government scholarship.

- (4) Military personnel are not eligible for this scholarship if they remain on active duty.
- (5) Existing financial support: Persons already receiving financial support from their home government or other organization are ineligible for this scholarship.
- (6) Research Topic: Applicants, who would like to apply for a Japanese Government Scholarship should choose a research topic related to the theme of law in a “Risk Society.” Please consult the curriculum document below for additional information on the type of topic that is appropriate. The courses listed in Section III and IV provide a good indication, although other similar fields are acceptable.

*Please note that if you are not applying for a Japanese Government Scholarship, there is no need for the thesis topic to be in the area of law in a risk society, and a proposal on any law-related topic is acceptable.

7. Tuition & Fees

Students receiving a Japanese government scholarship do not have to pay any fees.

On enrollment, all incoming self-funded students must pay an Examination Fee and Entrance Fee, in addition to the Tuition Fees.

For the academic year 2022-2023, the fees were as follows:

Tuition Fees (for one year): ¥535,800

Registration Fee: ¥30,000

Entrance Fee: ¥282,000

Please note that this amount is subject to annual review. The final amount for 2023-24 is available upon request from admission@law.kyushu-u.ac.jp.

A fee waiver scheme operates for self-funded students demonstrating a high level of academic performance. Please note that it is rare for students to receive a waiver on the Entrance Fee, and for the Tuition Fee successful candidates normally only receive a remission of up to 50%.

8. Warning

Successful applicants will have their enrollment at Kyushu University withdrawn immediately in the event of any of the following:

- If the applicant is found to have made false statements on his/her application.
- If the applicant is subject to disciplinary measures or has been found to have no promise for academic achievement by the University.
- If the applicant is absent from the University for a prolonged period of time without permission.
- If the student has insufficient resources to finance their studies in Kyushu University.
